Description:

The fine watch is manufactured by SWATCH. H05L2228E7 has been produced since around 1971, and is popular on the SWATCH. Band and case are made of silver and marked SWATCH. SWATCH is a registered trademark of the SWATCH group. The SWATCH logo is on the case and strap. The watch has all the features of an expensive product of its time. What is striking is the almost perfect condition of the fine lady's watch. The silver dials are executed in black enamel, the hands are easy to read, the enamel dial is still perfect and without hairline cracks. The small movement has also been freshly cleaned and is accurate. The finely attached strap with a safety clip on the clasp and all strap links are colorfully designed with a spring-loaded mechanism. A Swiss watch over 100 years old, which was probably only worn on special occasions.
