Description:

Finely crafted watch strap with spring-loaded end hooks to hook in solid watch. The middle part hides a flexible spring mechanism, which holds up to 1.5 cm extension in itself. The band is made of metal, massive silver metal. All springs spring, no structural damage, fully functional. A fine, new strap from the early days of the watchmaking. At the backside, the strap is stamped several times, including the other guarantee mark 825, weight 18,75 grams.
