

Shipping and packaging costs, delivery

The watches will be shipped free of charge as package. For deliveries abroad, the article will be sent concerning the customs declaration and, if available, an export permit. The customs formalities in the country of destination are the sole responsibility of the buyer / recipient. It should be noted that for the buyer / receiver again, if necessary, costs can arise over which we have no control. We declare for deliveries abroad in any case the value as it is shown in the auction or result in immediate purchase orders of custom's information, as it relieves the process.
